

Welcome back! I hope all of you have had a fun and relaxing summer. It was great seeing many of you around town or in church.

Now that the calendar has turned to August it is time to get back into the swing of school. I am delighted to be your child's homeroom teacher as well as his/her social studies, Spanish, and religion teacher (plus the 5th grade math teacher)! It is going to be a great year!

A Little bit of information:

Communication folder:

This is a yellow folder that helps continue the lines of communication between home and school. The left side of the folder contains a communication sheet that is for parents to write any comments/concerns/questions, etc. in which you may have. (This sheet should stay in the folder). I will write back on the sheet and send it with the communication folder every day. The right side of the folder will be for papers, newsletters, etc. that go home and come back on. Communication folders will be going home every day and should come back to school with your student EVERY DAY as well. It is always a good idea to check the folder for important forms, notes, etc.

Take home folder:

Students will take this folder to each of their classes and put their corrected homework in it. They should then be bringing this folder home to share what they have been doing.
